THE TRUST SITUATION.

Public interest is keen in the development of the trust situation as presented in the concrete cases of the Consolidated Lake Superior, the American Shipbuilding Company, the United States Steel Company and the final appeal of the Northern Securities case to be heard before the United States Supreme Court, December 14.

The air is full of rumors which have more or less of the character of probability. The New York American says the latest phase of the Gould-Rockefeller war, President Cassin involves the three of the Consolidated Lake Superior, and that United States Steel is to be impaired or the investigation stopped and given the same kind of a trust that the shipbuilding trust is now receiving. The steel magnates are bracing themselves for the legal ordeal. It is said preparations are being made to satisfy the interest of a sufficient number of stockholders to secure for the trust the $100,000,000 received by Morgan & Co. as their bond conversion commission; that B. P. Morgan and S. C. Rockefeller will be allowed to merge and that George W. Perkins will retire from the Morgan firm January 1. The latter rumor is emphatically denied by the firm, however.

The New York World says a settlement has been effected in the shipbuilding case, whereby counsel for S. A. P. Morgan and the shipbuilding company will withdraw from the litigation, and the latter will be allowed to merge and that George W. Perkins will retire from the Morgan firm January 1. The latter rumor is emphatically denied by the firm, however.

PROPOSALS FOR NOTHING.

In China a man who killed his father was executed, and, along with him, his brother-in-law for not having taken him to the gallows.

The Indian case is not drawn or pushed by the electric current at all, but is a simple case of a man who killed his father, and his brother-in-law for not having taken him to the gallows.

WILDS WHICH INVITE MR. NATOR HUNTO.

SPLOY PARAGRAPHS.
Lots of us were most prepared for cold weather.
General Hayes talks as if he had never heard of Kettle Hill.
There is a man in Chicago named Dan Rich—but he isn't.

The Charlestown think Crumacker is the alias of President Roosevelt.
The Columbian are apt to cool down pending the date limit of their ultimatum.
Teddy ought to take mighty steady to get Queen Lili and her $300,000 proposition.

"Is a man's face his own?" asks The Chicago Inter Ocean. Pass it up to the barber's shop.
The Adirondack in the United States senate is not kindly disposed toward reciprocity. Strange!

The Panama revolution was even too swift for that eminent Latin-American authority, Richard Harding Davis.
A noted alienist declares that while Teddy was hard to classify as "buggy," he is undoubtedly a Panamanian.

The bloody-shirers are getting busy in Congress. The old rag is again to be taken out of the relic case again in 1904.
If the military shirers of the United States senate they should be given the march that Ann is not too old to marry.

When General Hayes reached Cuba the morning yesterday afternoon on board his train, he was met by the military shirers of the United States senate they should be given the march that Ann is not too old to marry.

THE HORSE.

"Here's to that bundle of sentient nerves, with the heart of a woman, the eye of a gazelle, the courage of a gladiator, the docility of a slave, the proud carriage of a king and the blind obedience of a soldier; the companion of the desert plain, that turns the moist furrows in the spring in order that all the world may have abundant harvest, that furnishes the sport of kings, that with blaring eye and distended nostril fearlessly leads our greatest generals through carnage and renown, whose blood forms one of the ingredients that make the ink in which all history is written, and who, finally, in black trappings pulls the harness of us to the newly-d-d threshold of eternity."—Ker and Dr. W.

RUNAWAY BOYS CAUGHT.
Jim Reese, whose home is at Flat Rock, in McCallie county, twelve miles north of Edmonson, and Gilbert Harry, whose parents live at Breeding, in Adair county, in company with Edgar Reese, a cousin of the first-named, started to Texas about Sunday night, leaving their homes shortly after dark. They arrived in Glasgow shortly after daylight yesterday and started down the railroad to the main line on their way to their destination.

A few minutes before the early train left here Marshal Collins received a telephone message from the parents of the two first-named, instructing him to overtake the boys, arrest them and hold them here until their fathers could come for them. He accordingly located the train and overtook the boys at Oil City, where he arrested them and brought them back.

Edgar Reese is twenty-one years old, so he was allowed to go. The other two are seventeen. They said Edgar Reese was going to Texas to be with his sweetheart, and they decided to run off and go with him, and both declared their intention of leaving home as soon as another opportunity presented itself.

The parents of the boys arrived here yesterday afternoon and took the boys back with them.—Glasgow Times.

Senator James B. McCreary always gets the best that is going and he never receives more than he deserves. He will be assigned to the committee on foreign relations, one of the most important in the Senate. The selection is made because he was for 12 years on the similar committee in the House, during two years of which time he was its chairman.
